President’s Message

From the President’s Sewing Room:

Help!! I am buried under thread snips and fabric scraps – I need the vacuum fairy to show up in my studio. I have been so terribly busy lately that I have not had time to pull out the vacuum and clean the studio. Busy with quilting for clients, busy with quilting and sewing for me and for community outreach. But also, just on the go with life! It is so good to be slowly returning to normal.... or our new normal.

For me.... that means going to Silver Sneakers exercise class twice a week. And hopefully finding the self-discipline to watch their videos and do it at home two other times a week. It also means restructuring my days to make more time for myself. I have been spending time each day on the deck at the house and the porch at the studio just bird watching and enjoying our spring weather. I encourage everyone to make sure they have time for themselves – to rest – to recreate – to rejuvenate.

Now for that getting back to normal. I have been in contact with Yeoman’s Park Presbyterian Church where we meet. Their Session will meet in July to discuss and vote on allowing “others” back into their facility. So, we may have a meeting place available fairly soon. Some of our programs/speakers have already been contracted to do virtual presentations, and since we save a great deal of money that way, we may still have some virtual meetings. Also, now is the perfect time to tweak how and when we meet. Along those lines I have formed a committee to research and investigate some meeting ideas. The members of the committee are me, June Bohac, Melissa Pate, Sheila Moore, Pat Perry, and Deb Armstrong. Our first order of business will be to develop a survey for all the members about our meetings. Change is hard but change can be good. We have weathered a huge change since last March and we are still a strong, cohesive group. We need to find a way to keep all our members able to be a vital part of our meetings. I would like to have one more committee member that is a “working” person and someone from the North Charleston/Hanahan area and Mt. Pleasant. If you would like to help let me know ASAP!

I thoroughly enjoyed our May meeting speaker – wasn’t Barbara Brackman delightful? I did not know that the Chintz style quilts were what Charleston is known for.

As the summer heats up, I’ll be spending more time in the AC and the pool. I really do not like heat. And we are headed to Land Between the Lake in June and West Virginia in July for some camping time.

See you at the June meeting where you will learn all the details about the Cobblestone Quilters 2022 Quilt Show - Southern Hospitality.

Until next time...keep quilting...keep sharing...keep staying safe.

Karen Kendo

Minutes – Guild Meeting, Thursday, May 13, 2021

Karen Kendo called the meeting to order at 7:04 pm.

Minutes of the April 8th meeting were presented for approval. A motion was made by Marva Hayne, with a second by Katy Sheehy, to approve as published. The motion carried.

Treasurer's Report –

Karen reminded the members that the Treasurer's report was printed in the newsletter and that she and Donnita are available to respond to any questions or concerns members may have.

Membership Report –

- Pat Schneider reported that there are 138 members of Cobblestone Quilters Guild.
- There were 112 present on Facebook and 59 present on Zoom.

Member of Charleston Modern Quilters, Frayed Knots, and Loose Threads were also present and participated in hosting Barbara Brachman.

Program –

Barbara Brachman, renowned quilt historian and author, presented a look into quilts created in Charleston, mid- and highlands of South Carolina in the 17th and 18th centuries. Theories were given on how these masterpieces were created and a look into materials available at the time. Her power point contained many quilts, focusing on the use of chintz, blocks of South Carolina and how similar the album quilts are to Baltimore album quilts.

Show & Tell –

Thank you to the members who provided photographs and write ups of their quilts, many of which were completed while on lock down by the pandemic. If you would like to share your current project, please submit your photos and a write up to Karen Kendo no later than the Monday before the meeting. Show & Tell items can be seen on the CQG's website.

New Business –

Karen reported an ad hoc committee has been created to explore monthly meetings now that we are open to doing so. Where we will meet, continuing virtual for those who do not want to drive at night, and possibility of changing day and times. She is looking for two more volunteers to join this committee. If you are interested, please contact Karen.

Announcements –

- Julie Sanders mentioned that the Sulky virtual class will be held on July 9th at a cost of $40.00. The day promises to be one of fun and prizes are available as well.
- Pat Schneider announced that the Coastal Carolina Fair will be accepting quilts on October 16th and 17th, judging on the 18th and 19th, hanging on the 18th through the 22nd. Pick up will be on November 8. Times have changed a bit with the fair opening at noon until 9:00 pm.
- Mary Majesty announced that 2022 Beach Retreat applications will be May 12th through the 15th. Registration forms are on line and are to be mailed directly to Mary.
- Melissa Pate will be hosting the Show Committee meeting at her home on May 15th. Our Quilt Show is only nine months away!

- June's meeting will be our Quilt Show kick off meeting, July's program will be by Sulky and they will be presenting prizes throughout their presentation.

Karen adjourned the meeting at 8:23 pm.
Respectfully submitted by Becky Haines, Secretary

ANNOUNCEMENTS

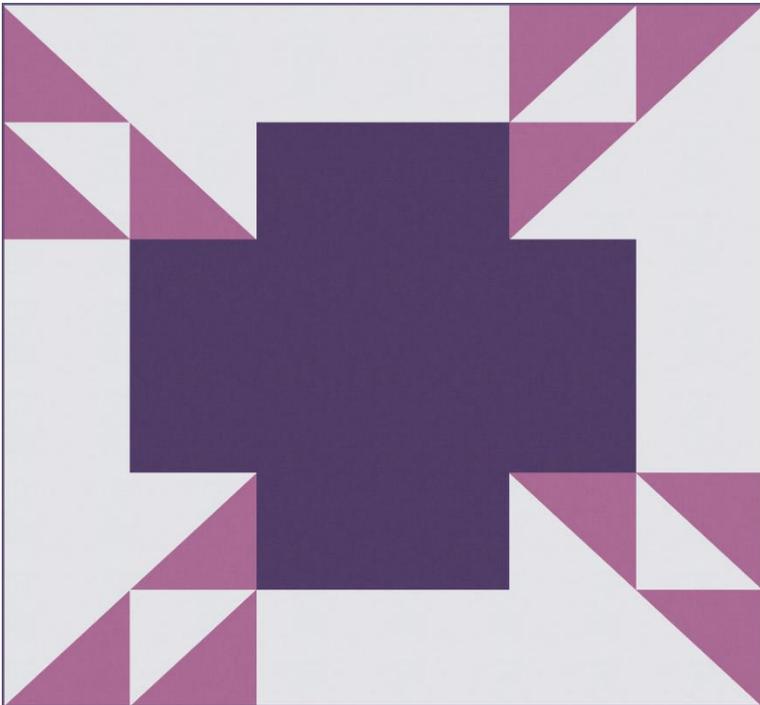

Virtual Show and Tell

We want to get back to having Show-and-Tell at our meetings. So, send your pictures to Karen Kendo by the Monday before our meeting each month. You can email them to kkendo52@gmail.com or text them to 843-834-3195. Include your name and anything you want the members to know about your quilt(s).

June 2021 Big Block BOM

I confess I got behind on making the blocks, but if you have been on our Facebook group you know I've been getting caught up. I am almost there!!

Here is the link to the June block: <https://shop.kitchentablequilting.com/collections/freebies/products/june-giant-block-tutorial>

Community Outreach

Happy Spring to all,

Community Outreach has received so many donations of fabric and I would like to thank all of you for your generosity. Also, a special thanks to everyone who has used the BOM to make charity quilts. This month we will be giving quilts to Hopes House and Home of Hope through Sheila Moore (just have to wait until my severe poison ivy gets better so I can get to the storage unit). Thanks, Sheila!

Ron from Morningstar has asked that I inquire if anyone would be interested a some child care opportunity for his daughter. Please contact Ron or myself for more information.

Also, is there anyone who would like to do some sewing helping to make cushions. Contact me if interested.

Have a great month and, hopefully, we will be meeting in person soon.

BUSY HANDS ARE HAPPY HEARTS!!!
